

6 November 2015

The story continues as days progress with coding challenge emails going unresponded and the bank accounts getting dried up like a barren well. I only can wait for nothing actually, just so that everything else will fade out of my memory. I simply keep quiet, I try, still try to look for familiar faces in crowds. I have not been a misanthrope lately. I should stop looking for those faces, stop making those eye connections - it's quite unnecessary. Also, these email support requests from Welton is just pedestrian - why do I even engage in such drivel? I have to leave to engage with the trip at my disposal - it would just be better if I continue to work as if nothing around matters - as I have said before "There's no point I have got to prove by sending emails to anyone". I will not speak with anyone here - or make peep. I will embrace loneliness to its fullest extent and just be a stranger amidst all those 'so-called' familiar faces. Stop asking for those envelopes it is another waste of energies - that thin flimsy envelope - that will not even last a few tears or shoves in that bag of mine. Ridiculous, I have been so far not wanting to be anything ~~so~~ but annoying. Just because I cough ~~over~~ up money, it does not mean I could expect shuff to happen around me. Even that prostitute refuses to give me a blow job, despite the money I am provide - this is why I say: 'Fuck the world' One less fuck to give - greater freedom and happiness for oneself. I am not sure how am I going to solve this hunger problem of mine.

Am I supposed to order food on borrowed money and continue to eat despite knowing that I am overweight obese - all that calories is not going to do me any good.

I am only going to scan these on that machine and mail myself. A burgeoning number of entries that keeps filling the mailbox and folders - they will simply sit and rot with time - there's nothing else that could ever come out of it. A brain rot in copious amounts only spreading in volume around my families to eventually just burst out and break everything apart. Hunger does bring anger and the angry one might bring in rage - who knows?
